Code of Ethics

Dynamic Property Services LLC promotes a high standard of professionalism, business ethics, and inspection procedures. We abide by the following Code of Ethics during the course of our business.

I. Duty to the Public

1. We shall abide by the Code of Ethics and substantially follow the InterNACHI® Standards of Practice.
2. We shall not engage in any practices that could be damaging to the public or bring discredit to the home inspection industry.
3. We shall be fair, honest and impartial, and act in good faith in dealing with the public.
4. We shall not discriminate in any business activities on the basis of age, race, color, religion, gender, national origin, familial status, sexual orientation, or handicap, and shall comply with all federal, state and local laws concerning discrimination.
5. We shall be truthful regarding our services and qualifications.
6. We shall not:
 - a. have any disclosed or undisclosed conflict of interest with the client;
 - b. accept or offer any disclosed or undisclosed commissions, rebates, profits, or other benefit from or to real estate agents, brokers, or any third parties having financial interest in the sale of the property; or
 - c. offer or provide any disclosed or undisclosed financial compensation directly or indirectly to any real estate agent, real estate broker, or real estate company for referrals or for inclusion on lists of preferred and/or affiliated inspectors or inspection companies.
7. We shall not release any information about the inspection or the client to a third party unless doing so is necessary to protect the safety of others, to comply with a law or statute, or both of the following conditions are met:
 - a. the client has been made explicitly aware of what information will be released, to whom, and for what purpose, and;
 - b. the client has provided explicit, prior written consent for the release of their information.
8. We shall always act in the interests of the client unless doing so violates a law, statute, or this Code of Ethics.
9. We shall use a written contract that specifies the services to be performed, limitations of services, and fees.

10. We shall comply with all government rules and licensing requirements of the jurisdiction where we conduct business.
11. We shall not perform or offer to perform, for an additional fee, any repairs or associated services to the structure for which we have prepared a home inspection report for a period of 12 months. This provision shall not include services to components and/or systems that are not included in the InterNACHI® Standards of Practice.

II. Duty to Continue Education

1. The InterNACHI® member who has earned the Certified Professional Inspector (CPI)® designation shall comply with InterNACHI's current Continuing Education requirements.
2. The InterNACHI® member who has earned the Certified Professional Inspector (CPI)® designation shall pass InterNACHI's Online Inspector Exam once every three years.

III. Duty to the Profession and to InterNACHI®

1. We shall strive to improve the home inspection industry by sharing our lessons and/or experiences for the benefit of all. This does not preclude us from copyrighting or marketing our expertise to other Inspectors or the public in any manner permitted by law.
2. We shall assist the InterNACHI leadership in disseminating and publicizing the benefits of InterNACHI membership.
3. We shall not engage in any act or practice that could be deemed damaging, seditious or destructive to InterNACHI®, fellow InterNACHI® members, InterNACHI® employees, leadership or directors. Accusations of a member acting or deemed in violation of such rules shall trigger a review by the Ethics Committee for possible sanctions and/or expulsion from InterNACHI®.
4. We shall abide by InterNACHI's current membership requirements.
5. We shall abide by InterNACHI's current message board rules.
